Key Findings

- Coordinated content from all resource programs and edited, designed, produced, and published the report (print and online) following its review and approval by ACA's Board of Directors.
- Edited all annual project summaries from the resource programs and posted them on our website.

Abstract

Our Annual Report informs our stakeholders know of how ACA has used funding, details on the conservation outcomes achieved, and how ACA has performed relative to its stated goals. Our board members received and reviewed the 2018/19 Annual Report for approval, and it appeared on our website in September 2019. Annual summaries also appeared on our website by April 30, 2019.

Introduction

Our Annual Report lets stakeholders know how Alberta Conservation Association (ACA) has used funding, what conservation outcomes have been achieved, and how ACA has performed relative to its stated goals.

Methods

Our Information, Education, and Communications Program team coordinates content from the other resource programs, then edits the content and designs and produces the report. Once reviewed and approved by ACA's Board of Directors, the report is published and posted on our website.

Results

The Annual Report for 2018/19 was provided to the board in a timely fashion for approval, and was posted on our website by September 2018. The annual summaries were successfully coordinated, edited, and then posted on our website by April 30, 2019.

Conclusions

This publication provides accountability and fiscal responsibility from levies, partnerships, and donations. Each project is summarized along with a list of partners who are so integral to the work we do.
